

PRESS ANNOUNCEMENT

i3 Pharma Resourcing launches new resourcing services in Belgium and Switzerland

i3 Pharma Resourcing, a leading global provider of quality clinical research and data services personnel, is launching resourcing services in Switzerland and Belgium in October 2009.

Now active in over 50 countries, i3 Pharma Resourcing draws on its clinical understanding and global resources to screen and interview each candidate carefully, matching the individual's skill set, qualifications and competencies with clients' specific requirements.

With their expertise in sourcing and placing the best clinical research and data services personnel, i3 Pharma Resourcing can help with individual placements, functional teams, permanent hires, and freelancers, or a flexible blend of customized solutions across a wide range of clinical research and data services disciplines and experience levels, to meet clients' requirements.

Bill McHale, President of i3 Pharma Resourcing, comments: "We are delighted to be expanding our operational footprint into new territories. With our combination of global back up and local expertise we are able to cater to any requirement. By placing great emphasis on personal service to our clients and associates, with ongoing customer alignment and support/development for each team member, I am certain i3 Pharma Resourcing will continue to be a great success as we further penetrate key geographical markets."
